> Perfect for...

Basic levels of English, and those starting out with this language. A fun exercise in immersion that uses short phrases, simple tenses and probabilities, while taking a comical look at the responsible use of social media.

> Don't miss...

The crazy situations full of gestural comedy.

> Did you know...?

A recent study has shown that it is mothers with children under the age of 5 - not teenagers - who are the most active on social media.

> Synopsis

What would a teenager in order to get a million followers? Come and find out with this entertaining parody that will surprise you all the way through. Humour and ingenuity come together here for a fresh comedy, full of recognisable yet unpredictable situations. Accept the challenge and you will have the best English class of the year.
