What a muddle down at the pond!

A duckling has hatched on the farm that isn't like the rest... and that's not the half of it! With his messy feathers and his huge heart, our hero is plunged into a frenetic adventure full of new adventures. A classic tale transformed into a fun and adorable musical where self-esteem, inclusion and friendship are centre stage. Completely adapted to your students' level of English, with catchy songs, simple dialogues and plenty of comedy, this show is the perfect excuse to teach them that being different is really a super-power, and what we all have in common is that we are all different!

> Perfect for...

Working on self-esteem, inclusion and respect for others while reinforcing English learning through songs, humour and participation.

> Don't miss...

The colourful scenery, up-beat music and an adorable protagonist who proves that being different... is the best thing that can happen to you!

> Did you know?

The Ugly Duckling has been translated into more than 150 languages, from Icelandic to Swahili. It is one of the most commonly adapted stories in drama, dance and film, due to its emotional connection to children and adults alike.
