1. JUSTIFICATION OF THE PROPOSAL

- Theatre as a tool for stimulating and encouraging students to discover, learn and apply the language they have learned.
- The plays present social content and are focused on an educational/student environment twith values that the students can easily identify.
- Apart from being written for live performance in a theatre for recreational and visual purposes, the scripts also help to develop communicative functions, vocabulary and grammatical structures. These aspects can be worked on beforehand in class using a series of worksheets to facilitate understanding of the plot and contribute to language learning. This didactic material is adjusted to the level of the students according to the objectives stipulated for the relevant level by the Ministry of Education.

2. OBJECTIVES:

General:

- Listening to and understanding messages in a variety of verbal exchanges, using the information transmitted to complete specific tasks.
- Expressing oneself and interacting orally in simple and common situations, using verbal and non-verbal communications and adopting a respectful attitude.
- Writing a variety of texts with different endings with the help of templates and models.
- Reading various texts in order to understand them, extracting general and specific information in accordance with a pre-established goal.
- Valuing a foreign language as a mean of communication and understanding among people with different places of origin, culture and languages.
- Contributing to the student's knowledge of linguistic, geographic and cultural features of the country where the foreign language is spoken.
- Understanding that theatre is a source of pleasure and personal enrichment, thus fostering student interest in this cultural activity.

Specific:

- Fostering interest in participating in oral exchanges about routines and situations from daily life in the relevant foreign language.
- Working on language prosody: aspects of phonetics, rhythm, accentuation and intonation.
- Familiarising the student, from the start, with the plot and different characters in order to facilitate comprehension of the performance during the play.
- Developing two communicative functions per level, providing the student with all the syntactic, grammatical, lexical and phonetic knowledge that make up the relevant functions in order for the student to be able to grasp them.
- The four basic skills that each reader needs to control in order to communicate optimally will also be worked on: listening and reading comprehension (L.C.-R.C.) and written and oral expression (W.E.-O.E).

3. METHODOLOGY

Presentation of Material:

The didactic worksheets included with the material, available to both students and teachers, are designed to be completed over four 60 minute sessions. The idea behind this is that the worksheets should be integrated into the class routine, reinforcing or applying previously acquired knowledge or introducing new but simple content on languages for a certain level.

Material Structure:

The objective of the first, second and third sessions is to give the students the necessary preparation in order for them to be able to watch the play without any comprehension problems on the day it is performed.

The fourth session will be focused on expression. After having seen the play the students will be allowed to express their opinions on the performance (comparing the play's actual ending with the ending he/she had previously imagined; comparing the behaviour of the actors with his/her own.)

BEFORE THE PERFORMANCE

All the sessions are structured as follows:

GRADE 1		OBJECTIVES	SKILLS
SESSION 1	Activity 1	Familiarisation with the plotPrepositions	• R.C. • W.E.

SELECTED APPROACH:

Although our main objectives are to foster interest in theatre and to help the student to grasp two new communicative functions, our approach is intended to be fun, visual and communication-based. In fact, on these worksheets, we can find many activities presented as games and which also provide moments of fun in class. Finally, all sessions require the student to express him/herself, with activities focusing on situations from daily life or even acting. As such, the goal is to offer activities as an alternative to the class routine and to make learning a second language more attractive. All of this work is presented as project of the utmost interest: seeing a play in a foreign language.

ADVICE AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

Before starting on the worksheets and the activities proposed therein, the students must have the play in order to go on to read it. All this material is available on the following website: www.recursosweb.com

In the student section, the sessions are spread out over several worksheets. It is advisable to make as many copies as there are students as soon as possible. As soon as the students have the worksheets, they will be able to complete them, following the instructions given for each exercise and with help from additional materials such as dictionaries and reference manuals in class.

In the teacher's section, you will find all the activities designed for the students as well as the answer key with all the correct answers for all the questions.

Each activity on the didactic worksheets is designed to work the four basic skills in foreign language acquisition: Listening Comprehension, Reading Comprehension, Written Expression and Oral Expression.

Through these skills, a range of vocabulary, grammatical structures and phonetic aspects are worked on in order to develop a series of communicative functions that we consider key for understanding the play as well for applying them to real situations.

In addition to the presence of the different basic skills, the sessions follow a sequential order. It is therefore important to complete each and every one of the sessions, from the introduction of the plot to the storyline and characters, culminating in the resolution of the play. Therefore, completing the didactic worksheets before going to see the play is necessary in order to reinforce the overall comprehension of the play and, at the same time, to create excitement and expectations that could very well be completely realised upon leaving the theatre.

SESSION 1: SYNOPSIS AND CHARACTERS

Activity 1: The Synopsis

Read the synopsis of SHERLOCK HOLMES. Here is a glossary of words to help you!

UNEXPECTED: regarded as unlikely to happen.

SETTLE DOWN: to adopt a more steady or secure style of life.

CONCERNED: worried, troubled or anxious.

CURSE: a solemn statement intended to invoke a supernatural power to inflict harm or punishment on someone or something.

WHOLEHEARTED: showing complete sincerity and commitment.

When (0) Watson arrives at the school, Sherlock and Elisabeth are two young students who (1) are investigating the mysterious death of the literature teacher as a ghostly silhouette walks around (2) the school, foreshadowing misfortune. Sherlock is concerned for (3) the safety of his friends and is convinced that the deaths will continue until (4) he catches the culprit.

Young Sherlock is convinced that the teacher has not been killed by (5) a ghost, but by someone real, and that another murder is now being planned for (6) a member of the school. Young Sherlock decides to (7) take part when (8) he believes that Watson and Elisabeth's lives are in (9) danger. The soon-to-be-famous detective and his enthusiastic friend are ready to (10) face their first case.

Choose the correct preposition from the following options.

- 0 as / before / when

SESSION 4: Express Yourself!

Activity 3: Role Play

Here there are three extracts from the play. Choose one to act out in groups.

Extract I (from Scene 2)

SHERLOCK:	That uniform looks good on you. Wait! Let me seeYour name is James Watson You're from the north of England, your father is a doctor, and you spend a lot of time writing, am I correct?
WATSON:	My name isn't James, it's John.
SHERLOCK:	James John What's the difference?
WATSON:	There´s a huge difference!
SHERLOCK:	Did I get the rest of it right?
WATSON:	Yes! You were absolutely right. How did you do that? Is that some kind of magic trick?
SHERLOCK:	No magic. Pure deduction. The name tag on the suitcase says J. Watson.
WATSON:	Now I understand.
SHERLOCK:	(To the audience.) I chose the most common name beginning with a J. John would have been my second option.
WATSON:	Of course.
SHERLOCK:	Your particular shoes are not made in the city. I saw a very similar pair when I was in the north of England.
WATSON:	How do you know I'm a writer then?
SHERLOCK:	l just saw the calluses on your finger. A writer´s trademark.
WATSON:	Really?
SHERLOCK:	And finally Why is a sixteen-year-old boy like you reading a book on medicine that is so hard to find in bookshops?
WATSON:	My dad is a Doctor.
SHERLOCK:	My name is Holmes, by the way, Sherlock Holmes. (To the audience.) You can't imagine the way he was looking at me by this point. He thought I was completely mad. He made a good impression on me. Short
WATSON:	Hey!
SHERLOCK:	I meant small! Clumsy!
WATSON:	Hey!
SHERLOCK:	Uncoordinated. Anyway, he looked like an exceptionally good person, and l knew he was going to be my best friend. (To Watson.) We're late for physics class, Watson. We need to sharpen your mind.

SESSION 4: Express Yourself!

Extract II (from Scene 3)

MRS. GAMAL:	Children! Could you explain why you are not in class right now?
SHERLOCK:	We were just showing the new pupil around the school, Mrs Gamal.
MRS. GAMAL:	He has plenty of time to see the school properly. But now you should all be in class. Come on!
WATSON:	With all due respect, Mrs Gamal, there's no need to be rude.
MRS. GAMAL:	Go!
WATSON:	She's a real character isn't she? Who is she?
SHERLOCK:	She's the housekeeper. She's Egyptian and she's nice sometimes. I wonder what she is carrying in that sack?
WATSON:	The bear is black.
SHERLOCK:	What's that?
WATSON:	The riddle. The bear is black!
SHERLOCK:	Wrong again, but please don't interrupt me when I'm concentrating on something.
WATSON:	About what Sherlock?
SHERLOCK:	Let's follow her!
	(The kids follow the housekeeper, but she realises she's being followed.)
MRS. GAMAL:	How many times do I have to tell you that you should be in class?
SHERLOCK:	Milady, you dropped a piece of paper when you were talking to us, and we were wondering if fell out of your sack.
MRS. GAMAL:	I'm not carrying papers in my sack.
WATSON:	What are you carrying then?
MRS. GAMAL:	What do you expect a housekeeper to be carrying? Dirty sheets and clothes for the laundry.
ELIZABETH:	It looks very heavy.
MRS. GAMAL:	If all you do is think about what a housekeeper is carrying to the laundry you will end up just like me. Cleaning other people's shits.
WATSON:	l beg you pardon?
MRS. GAMAL:	(Winking.) I meant other people´s sheets. Come on!. If I don't see you going to class right now, I will report you to the headmaster immediately.

SESSION 4: Express Yourself!

Extract III (from Scene 5)

SHERLOCK:	Watson, my friend! I was so worried about you! What happened to you? Why did you scream like that?
WATSON:	I was in the bathroom when suddenly, I saw her
ELIZABETH:	Who?
WATSON:	Mrs Ramsay.
ELIZABETH:	(Madly.) That's a lie! She´s dead. She was found dead! Everybody knows that!
SHERLOCK:	Elizabeth, calm down! Why are you acting like that? Please continue Watson!
WATSON:	She appeared right in front of me, and I could see her eyes. They were very weird, Holmes. They looked so cold, as if they were not from this earth. She was like a monster. Oh god, I think she's the most terrible sight I've ever seen. Oh my friends, I'm so scared now.
SHERLOCK:	You said she was like the ghost of Mrs. Ramsay. How did you know it was her?
WATSON:	She told me (He does an impression of her) She said: I´m Mrs Ramsay, the literature teacher.
SHERLOCK:	Did she say anything else?
WATSON:	She said that someone was going to kill us if we didn't mind our own business, just like she was killed.
ELIZABETH:	Liar!
SHERLOCK:	Don't worry, Watson. We are here now, and we won't let anything happen to you. What is that?
	(Watson has stained his trousers.)
WATSON:	Oh! It's so embarrassing. Mrs Ramsay appeared just before I got to the toilets and
ELIZABETH:	Oh! That's disgusting!
SHERLOCK:	Don't worry, my friend. Let's hurry back to our room so you can get changed.
WATSON:	Oh my god! Thanks for looking for me. If not I would have been here all night and Aaaaah!
	(Mrs Gamal appears.)
